

The Scientific Committee of ISANH and Polyphenols 2012 decided to set up an International Committee to apply for the next Seventh Framework Programme (FP7). The aim of this Task Force is to gather all actors of polyphenols in the same consortium.

The first meeting was held during Paris Polyphenols 2012 World Congress .

If you are interested to join FP7 project, please complete the form available here.

To know more about this FP7 Project, please contact us .